

Wilderness Quest

Mountain Roots presents Wilderness Quest, a 4th grade immersive learning adventure including 4 challenges that the character, Brian Robeson, faced in the novel Hatchet.

Our Wilderness Quest field trip focuses around key takeaways from Brian's survival experience.

Working in small groups, students will complete:

Water Collection & Purification

Fire Building & Safety

Shelter Building... and More!

About Mountain Roots

Established in 2009, Mountain Roots is a 501c3 nonprofit that provides experiential and outdoor learning opportunities for youth across Western NC. We currently work with over 20 local schools and run seven weeks of day camp in the Brevard/Fletcher area. Our team of professional educators bring learning to life year round and we can't wait for your class to join us!
